I was reminded after annotating the obit on Earl Robinson and thinking about what I did in those days that of all the libraries and other institutions to which I sent free copies of the committee's hearings only the Carnegie "peace" ~~libar~~ library refused to accept them and actually mailed them back to me.

HW 8/23/91

That was after a man phoned to complain about receiving them.